ACHC and Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts Renew Partnership

Cary, NC- Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts (HCA of MA), a nonprofit trade association that advocates with and on behalf of home care agencies and patients. The partnership with ACHC allows HCA of MA members to continue to receive special pricing on ACHC Home Health Accreditation services, as well as discounts on ACHCU educational resources that help home care providers prepare for ACHC Accreditation.

“ACHC is excited to continue our partnership with Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts,” said Matt Hughes, ACHC Director of Business Development. “The renewal of our collaboration demonstrates an ongoing commitment by HCA of MA members to demonstrate a higher level of performance, patient care, and safety through accreditation and compliance.”

ACHC offers a broad suite of home health compliance solutions, including Home Health Aide, Medical Social Service, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Skilled Nursing, and Speech Therapy. Companies seeking to distinguish themselves within the home health market can also obtain distinctions from ACHC in Behavioral Health and Palliative Care.

Founded in 1969, HCA of MA is a nonprofit trade association and advocacy group that represents more than 160 home care and home health agencies across the state. With a mission to unite people and organizations to advance community health through care and services in the home, Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts provides representation, education, communication, advocacy, and, ultimately, a voice for the home health industry in Massachusetts. “Maintaining the public’s trust in the home care industry and in our providers is central to the mission of the Home Care Alliance of MA,” Patricia Kelleher, Executive Director of Home Care Alliance of Massachusetts. “Our partnership with ACHC contributes to that mission as we know that they are committed to ensuring that those they accredit adhere to a set of high standards both in the delivery of care and in their general business practices. Their accreditation process is also an important part of instilling confidence in those who refer patients to home care that there is a transparent quality framework in place.”

ACHC is a nonprofit accreditation organization that has stood as a symbol of quality and excellence since 1986. The organization has CMS deeming authority for Home Health, Hospice, Renal Dialysis, and DMEPOS, in addition to a Quality Management System that is certified to ISO 9001:2015. ACHC is the provider’s choice for accreditation because of its personal Account Advisors, relevant and realistic standards, competitive pricing, and a friendly, educational approach to accreditation. Accreditation by ACHC reflects an organization’s dedication and commitment to meeting standards that facilitate a higher level of performance and patient care.
