ACHC and Always Best Care Renew Commitment to High-Quality Senior Care

Founded in 1996, Always Best Care assists seniors with a wide range of illnesses and personal needs to provide peace of mind for patients and their families.

“Both ACHC and Always Best Care Senior Services are dedicated to improving patient outcomes and enhancing business operations,” said Matt Hughes, ACHC Business Development Director. “The renewal of our partnership highlights an ongoing commitment by Always Best Care Senior Services franchise owners to demonstrate a higher level of performance, patient care, and safety.”

The partnership allows Always Best Care Senior Services franchise owners to continue receiving special pricing on ACHC educational resources and accreditation services. All Always Best Care franchise owners are eligible to receive $50 off educational workbooks and workshops from ACHCU, our educational resources division. “Always Best Care Senior Services is grateful for its renewed relationship with the Accreditation Commission for Health Care,” said Always Best Care Senior Executive Vice President of Area Operations Sheila Davis, CHCE, COS. “As an increased number of consumers look for in-home care, ACHC accreditation serves as a ‘seal of approval.’ Our accredited agencies go above and beyond the standards and make a commitment to meet higher and more stringent standards established by ACHC.

“Accreditation provides a ‘peace of mind’ to our valued consumers,” Davis said. “Our consumers understand that meeting accreditation standards ensures that our agencies are committed to achieve the best outcomes for consumers and allows for an elevated level of trust in their care and coordination. Always Best Care Senior Services is proud of the credibility that ACHC affords to our accredited agencies.”
