ACHC and Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home Support Cost-Effective Options

Cary, NC- Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces the renewal of its partnership with Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home, a state association with over 100 years of experience providing cost-effective healthcare solutions for home and community-based providers in Connecticut.

“ACHC and the Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home share a commitment of championing for quality-driven, patient-centered care for the home health and hospice communities,” said Susan Mills, ACHC Associate Clinical Director. “The renewal of our partnership allows the Connecticut Association members to continue to have access to educational materials to stay informed and create change within their communities.”

The partnership with ACHC also allows association members to continue receiving special pricing on ACHC Accreditation services for home health, hospice, and private duty programs, as well as discounts on ACHCU educational resources that can help healthcare providers prepare for ACHC Accreditation.

Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home is the state’s largest member group of home health and hospice leaders that uses networking, education, and advocacy to champion for cost-effective, home-based solutions in an effort to coordinate, transform, and manage patient care.

“The Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home is pleased to once again renew its partnership with ACHC, a nationally known accrediting body offering cost-effective licensure and accrediting support to our home health and hospice providers in Connecticut,” said Tracy Wodatch, RN, BSN, President and CEO, Connecticut Association for Healthcare at Home.

As a united voice for home and community-based care providers in Connecticut, the association offers exclusive benefits for its members. CT Association for Healthcare at Home works to respond to the needs of its members with information, education, and advocacy. ACHC offers a broad suite of home health, hospice, and private duty compliance solutions, including accreditation programs for Home Health Aide, Medical Social Services, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, Skilled Nursing, Speech Therapy, Hospice Care, Hospice Inpatient Care, Private Duty Nursing, Private Duty Aide, and Private Duty Companion/Homemaker services.

Founded in 1986, ACHC is a nonprofit accreditation organization that has long stood as a symbol of quality and excellence, and is known for providing the industry’s best customer service. We have CMS deeming authority for Home Health, Hospice, Renal Dialysis, and DMEPOS, in addition to a Quality Management System that is certified to ISO 9001:2015.

ACHC is the provider’s choice for accreditation because of our personal Account Advisors, clinical and regulatory support, relevant and realistic standards, program-specific educational resources, and a friendly, collaborative approach to accreditation. Accreditation by ACHC reflects an organization’s dedication and commitment to meeting standards that facilitate a higher level of performance and patient care. And with no annual fees, ACHC offers cost-effective, competitive pricing to help providers achieve their accreditation goals.
