ACHC and Kansas Home Care Association (KHCA) form Partnership

Cary, NC- Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) is excited to announce its new partnership with the Kansas Home Care Association (KHCA). This agreement allows KHCA members to receive special pricing on ACHC's Home Health, Hospice, and Private Duty Accreditation services, as well as discounts on Accreditation University (AU) educational resources that help prepare KHCA members for ACHC Accreditation.

"ACHC is thrilled to partner with KHCA to provide its members with benefits on accreditation services and educational resources," said Matt Hughes, ACHC Director, Business Management & Customer Service. "We look forward to working closely with KHCA through this partnership and promoting to our Kansas customers the importance of joining their state association."

Formed in 1973, the Kansas Home Care Association (KHCA) is the leading statewide organization representing home care and providing leadership, support, and services to the Kansas home care and hospice industry.

"We look forward to partnering with ACHC to offer our members an opportunity to improve their business operations, as well as to become accredited with a national organization that is devoted to delivering patient-centered, quality home health services, and that is committed to offering collaborative relationships with industry leaders," said Jane Kelly, KHCA Executive Director.

ACHC is a non-profit accreditation organization that has stood as a symbol of quality and excellence for 30 years. ACHC offers nationally recognized accreditation services for home health, hospice, and private duty agencies. The organization has Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) Deeming Authority for Home Health, Hospice, and Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics, and Supplies (DMEPOS), and a Quality Management System that is certified to ISO 9001:2008. ACHC's consultative approach to accreditation is designed to improve the quality of patient care while enhancing business efficiencies through service-specific standards and industry-based best practices. Throughout the entire accreditation process, ACHC is dedicated to delivering the best possible experience.
