Arcadia HealthCare Receives Accreditation from ACHC

Raleigh, NC, January 2009: The Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) is pleased to announce that Arcadia Resources, Inc. (NYSE Alternext: KAD), a leading provider of innovative consumer health care services under the Arcadia HealthCare<sup>SM</sup> brand, has received accreditation from ACHC for its Home Healthcare Equipment (HHE) division operations. The ACHC is a national, non-profit organization that provides voluntary accreditation programs for various providers, including home health and hospice agencies, home infusion companies, home care aides, specialty pharmacies, and home medical equipment suppliers like Arcadia's HHE division. The ACHC was developed to help these companies improve business operations and quality of patient care.

"We are pleased that Arcadia's HHE operations are receiving ACHC accreditation," said Steven L. Zeller, Arcadia's Executive Vice President of Operations. "This accreditation process further advances Arcadia's commitment to quality and compassionate home care as well as our vision of 'Keeping People at Home and Healthier Longer'".
