ACHC and Visante Partner to Support Specialty and Infusion Pharmacies

CARY, N.C. – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announced today it is partnering with Visante, a provider of strategic healthcare solutions that help health system leaders improve patient care, operational performance, and financial results through pharmacy.

“ACHC and Visante are mutually dedicated to supporting the interests of health system-owned specialty and infusion pharmacies,” said Matt Hughes, ACHC Vice President of Corporate Strategy. “Integrated pharmacies play an essential role in coordinating and improving care efforts. Our new relationship with Visante highlights a shared commitment to enhancing patient care and outcomes.”

“Visante is excited to be an ACHC partner,” said Steve Rough, Visante CEO. “We support hundreds of hospitals and health systems nationwide to transform healthcare through pharmacy.”

“Our support for specialty pharmacy and infusion services requires the highest level of quality and safety, and helping our partners achieve specialty and infusion accreditation is paramount to building a best-in-class specialty and infusion pharmacy program,” Rough added.

“Visante is pleased to be an ACHC partner to help health systems achieve accreditation with this outstanding organization and to help health systems provide specialty medications and infusion services to patients with the assurance of the highest quality standards and patient care.”

The partnership gives Visante customers special pricing on ACHC Pharmacy Accreditation for specialty and infusion services. Discounts on select ACHCU educational resources are also available.
