ACHC and IHHC Partner to Support Home Care Providers

Cary, NC – Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) announces its collaboration with Illinois HomeCare & Hospice Council (IHHC), the nation's first home care association and the voice for home care in Illinois.

"IHHC and ACHC share a strong desire to make sure home care and hospice providers have the resources they need to deliver exceptional patient care," said Susan Mills, ACHC Program Director. "We look forward to working with IHHC to give their members an affordable, quality accreditation option."

The collaboration allows IHHC and ACHC to deliver the best resources to Illinois home care and hospice agencies, organizations, and individual professionals. IHHC members are now eligible for special pricing on ACHC Accreditation for home health, hospice, private duty, and home infusion therapy services, as well as discounts on educational workshops and workbooks that can help them prepare for accreditation.

Since 1960, IHHC has strived to protect and preserve the rights of patients and clients. IHHC members adhere to a code of ethics that promotes the values of excellence, integrity, inclusion, and collaboration. IHHC members benefit from access to expert regulatory guidance; discounts on workshops, conferences, and on-demand courses; a member forum; and educational newsletters. IHHC also provides resources that enable family caregivers and health professionals to find services, searchable by geographic areas. For more information, visit www.ilhomecare.org.

As a nationally recognized accreditor, ACHC offers a broad suite of home care compliance solutions, including accreditation for Home Health Aide, Skilled Nursing, Hospice Care, Hospice Inpatient Care, Private Duty Nursing, Private Duty Aide, and Home Infusion Therapy Supplier services. ACHC has CMS deeming authority for Home Health, Hospice, Home Infusion Therapy, Renal Dialysis, and DMEPOS.

With over 30 years of experience promoting safe, quality patient care, ACHC is known for providing value, integrity, and the industry's best customer service. ACHC's flexible, educational approach gives providers options tailored to fit their needs. Providers receive assistance throughout the accreditation process and have access to personal Account Advisors, clinical and regulatory support, and program-specific educational resources. With no annual fees, ACHC offers cost-effective, competitive pricing to help providers achieve their accreditation goals.
