Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care and Accreditation Commission for Health Care Form Partnership

Cary, NC- Accreditation Commission for Health Care (ACHC) is excited to renew its new partnership with Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care. This agreement allows Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care members to receive special pricing on ACHC's Home Health, Hospice, and Private Duty Accreditation services, as well as, discounts on ACHCU educational resources that help prepare association members for ACHC Accreditation.

"ACHC looks forward to continuing our partnership with Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care to offer their members resources and education that will empower them to provide the highest quality patient care," said Matt Hughes, ACHC Director of Business Development.

Established in 1990, Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care represents home care provider, home nursing care provider, and hospice provider agencies licensed by the Rhode Island Department of Health to serve patients and clients in every Rhode Island community with healthcare services in the home. Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care is committed to promoting quality home healthcare service delivery, ethical healthcare business practices and positive patient and client outcomes to ensure that access to home care and hospice remains an integral component of Rhode Island's post-acute and long-term healthcare system.

"Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care is proud to partner with ACHC as they are an accrediting organization that is consistent with our mission of 'Advancing quality healthcare at home,'" said Nicholas Oliver, MPA, CAE, Executive Director of the Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care. "On behalf of my association, I am looking forward to continuing to collaborate with ACHC and Rhode Island's home care, home health, home infusion, palliative care and hospice providers to ensure that the highest healthcare service delivery remains available to home bound Rhode Islanders."

ACHC is a nonprofit accreditation organization with CMS Deeming Authority for Home Health, Hospice and Durable Medical Equipment, Prosthetics, Orthotics, and Supplies (DMEPOS), with a Quality Management System that is certified to ISO 9001:2015. We were created for providers, by providers, to deliver a better accreditation experience. Since 1986, ACHC has offered a collaborative and educational approach to accreditation, empowering providers to enhance patient care through service-specific standards and industry best practices.

ACHC's Partnership Program allows us to work closely with organizations like Rhode Island Partnership for Home Care that share in the same mission and objectives. We continue to partner with healthcare organizations with different, yet complementary strengths, allowing us to offer providers access to the best industry resources.
